

- 1 Grant and Garth are playing on the swings when some older kids come over and start calling Garth names. Grant can tell that the bigger kids will probably start making fun of him, too, so he runs away. Is Grant being a peacemaker?
- 2 Aisha's big sister Evelyn is mad at their mom because she won't let Evelyn go see a scary movie with her friend. Aisha hears Evelyn telling her friend that she'll just lie and tell her mom they are going to a different movie instead. Aisha thinks it'll be fun to see Evelyn get in trouble. Is Aisha being a peacemaker?
- 3 Fiona sees her little brother, Jamison, getting out his tub of Play-Doh® from the closet. Earlier, she heard her mom tell Jamison not to get the Play-Doh out today. Fiona distracts Jamison by letting him play with one of her toys, something she never lets him do. Is Fiona being a peacemaker?
- 4 Zion and her little sister, Keesha, are arguing about whose turn it is to play on the computer. They're getting louder and louder, but their brother Jamar quickly steps between them and suggests they set a timer so each girl gets a turn. Is Jamar being a peacemaker?

What to Do:
Print one for each small group.